Foreword

Marie Laveau was one powerful woman. Everyone in New Orleans knew and feared her at the same time. Stories about her magical escapades have been passed along for over a century now, but as far as I know, no one has shared these spells with the world until now.

Although I have never believed in censorship when it comes to magic (the power belongs to people!) I decided not to publish the black magic spells she has relayed to me.

I hope you who obtained this book will have many successes with it.

Brother Cernunnos

The Seal and Prayer of Choco Mama

Choco Mama, Choco Mama, Choco Mama who came from the Mother Land on the waves of slaveboats open the road!

Whenever the words are said Choco Mama will come and work for you.

The Sword of Fire, Or Protection Against All Things Evil

When you find a dead locust by chance, put it in your left pocket and walk straight home without talking to anyone.

Grind the locust into powder and burn the powder on coals. Jump over the smoke while saying

Jehovah how are mine adversaries increased Many are they that rise up against me
Many there are that say of my soul
There is no help for him in God
But thou oh Jehovah art a shield about me
My glory and the lifter up of my head
I cry unto Jehovah with my voice
And he answereth me out of his holy hill
I laid me down and slept
I awaked for Jehovah sustaineth me
I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people
That have set themselves against me round about Arise oh Jehovah
Save me oh my God
For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone
Thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked
Salvation belongeth unto Jehovah
Thy blessing be upon thy people

Take offerings of your own choosing, only making sure that there is hard liquor and one object you will take with you once the spell is over, to the grave of an ancestor. Place the offerings at the foot of the gravestone.

Take some hard liquor in your mouth and spray it towards the gravestone. Say

I pray the Baron to take the hand of beloved (name of your ancestor) and bring him (or her) to me because I desperately need to talk with him (or her).

State your business and be courteous, for the dead don't suffer the living to bemoan them. When you wish to say farewell to the ancestor, pour hard liquor on the object you have chosen to take with you, and say

Remember me, great (name)

Goodbye

Whenever you need to talk to the ancestor, hold the object in your hand and call out to him or her.

Conjuration of Two Spirit Servitors

This formula conjures two Hoodoo spirits to work for you. After you have done this conjuration, they can be called in all formulas, thus ensuring success, by saying each of their names three times before commencing. Their names are Marie Laveau and Doctor John.

Purchase two candles, pink and black, to represent the spirits. Female and male figure candles are best if you can find them, but normal taper candles are passable if obtaining figure candles proves impossible.

Make Van Van oil from lemongrass and base oil, Doctor John oil from base oil and one-third hyssop and two-thirds nettles, and Marie Laveau oil from base oil and one-third rose petals and two-thirds bay. Do not buy these oils.

Take a shower or bath. Place the Bible on the altar. Place the spirit candles before two altar candles, which could be two tall white taper candles. Dress the altar candles with the Van Van oil, and the pink and black spirit candles with Marie Laveau oil and Doctor John oil, respectively.

Light the candles, and say the 23rd Psalm. Say

I conjure you mighty spirits of Doctor John and Marie Laveau

Introduce yourself, and speak a little about the formulas you are intending to do. Ask them in advance to come to your aid when you call upon their names.

Thank Doctor John and Marie Laveau and let the candles burn to the end.

Become More Popular Than the Finest Actors

Gather five objects: a copper coin bathed in sunlight for fifteen days, a hair from a big black dog or a chimpanzee, a knot of unwashed underwear from a young couple in love, a sunflower, and a bottle of liquor auburn in color.

Take the objects to the crossroads just before sunrise. Make the sign of the cross three times and leave without looking back.

Money Drawing Corn Spell

Wash seven coins in Hoyt's cologne. Keep them in your pocket for seven days. Cut out the pocket and cut its sides open so that you are left with something of a rectangle. Buy a big corn head. When the minute hand rises, rewash the coins and place them on the corn head and cover them with the pocket. Hit eight nails in the corn so that there is a nail on the both sides of all coins. If you did this correctly, the pocket should have tightened over the coins and they should not fall off. Say

Praise waiteth for thee, oh God, in Zion
And unto thee shall the vow be performed
Oh thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come Iniquities prevail against me
As for our transgressions, thou wilt forgive them Blessed is the man whom thou choosest and causest to approach unto thee that he may dwell in thy courts
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, thy holy temple
By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness, oh God of our salvation
Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea
Who by his strength setteth fast the mountains, being girded about with might
Who stilleth the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples
They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens
Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice
Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it
Thou greatly enrichest it, the river of God is full of water
Thou providest them grain when thou hast so prepared the earth
Thou waterest its furrows abundantly
Thou settlest the ridges thereof
Thou makest it soft with showers
Thou blessest the springing thereof
Thou crownest the year with thy goodness and thy paths drop fatness
They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness and the hills are girded with joy
The pastures are clothed with flocks, the valleys also are covered over with grain
They shout for joy, they also sing

Bury the corn in your yard. Say Shema-Israel Adonai keep it.

Find a Lover

Go to a graveyard on a Friday or on a Valentine's day, and find a red flower from a grave of a man if you are a woman, and the other way around. Kiss the gravestone three times. Take the flower with you home and crush the petals and put them into an oil bottle. Add vanilla, and blood from your ring finger. Take the oil to your porch [or just outside the front door, or balcony —Editor] on a next such Friday when the sky is full of stars, and open the bottle. Hold it like that and say

Peter Thaddeus Matthew Thomas Judas John Andrew James Philip Simon Bartholomew James

Dress a red taper candle with the oil and dab some of it on your private parts. Light the candle and say

Mary mother of God and forgiver of sins the flesh is weak

Let the candle burn to the end.

Spells From the Moses Book

I have selected a few spells Marie Laveau has relayed to me that employ names from the Sixth and Seventh Books of Moses.

I. To make a certain high and mighty man notice you and give you respect, take a chicken bone and draw his name on the ground with it, and say Mephistophiles.

II. To make a certain handsome man court you, skip a ready meal and speak his name instead of eating it, and say Lord knoweth me Malchuth. Throw the meal away.

III. To hear from an estranged friend, take two eggs, one per each hand. Speak your name and the name of the estranged friend, and hit the eggs together, saying Castas-Astas.

IV. For luck in gambling, wash your tokens in Hoyt's cologne and speak the word Lagumen.

V. To make a lover, new or old, come to you, dig up an earthworm and say Eleazar. Spit on the earthworm and replace it in the dirt.

VI. To make a man dream of you day and night, go to the crossroads and throw salt over your left shoulder. Say his name and the word Lebatel.

VII. To win an argument, remove your earrings and put them back the other way around, and say Heilig.

VIII. To get rid of an annoying guest, throw salt at your front door while you are inside, and say Amarlia.

IX. To locate treasure, remove the third button from your fly, counting up or down, if you are a gentleman and any third button above your waistline if you are a lady. Wash it in Hoyt's cologne and say Yagar. Sew the button back on.

X. To win a legal case, grab a horn of a living animal and say Araboth.

XI. To make a male friend generous, hold your left breast and say his name and the word Cadelo.

XII. To reduce fever, say Tetragrammaton and chew on a coffee bean.

XIII. To make your lover strong in bed, remove a thread from his used underwear, tie it three times around a nutmeg seed, and say Lebarosin.

XIV. To stop gossip, go before an image of Jesus, make the sign of the cross, and say Asteroth Amen.

XV. To enjoy the work as a lady of the night, store the earnings in a bra and say Kijmah upon storing them.

XVI. To make a police officer leave you alone, turn around counterclockwise as if looking around but turning your whole body at the same time, and say Lucasim.

XVII. Say Emanuel before breakfast to prevent poverty.

XVIII. To find a wealthy man, make an oil of palmarosa, menstrual blood and galbanum. Dip rose petals in the oil and let them dry. Grind the petals into a powder along with a dollar bill on a Friday when the minute hand is rising. Mix the powder with your last meal of the day and say I will praise the name of God with a song and will magnify him with a thanksgiving. Eat the meal and say Leviathan Amen.

XIX. Make a red flannel mojo for success from a photo of an ancestor, a lodestone washed with Hoyt's cologne, and a High John the Conqueror root. Place the items in the flannel bag and say (name of the ancestor) and Barbuel keep these.

XX. To make all men want to court you, walk counterclockwise around a church while wearing your panties inside out and say Uniel.

XXI. To bring yourself together with a handsome man, cut two hearts from a playing card and sew them inside of dolls you have made to represent a male and a female which you ought to fill with masculine and feminine ingredients, but not after a mixed manner. Wash the dolls in holy water and say Jesus son of Mary baptize us. Place the dolls in a bird nest and say Solomon take these.

XXII. To get someone to pay back the money you lent them, burn crushed hickory nuts and black peppercorns on coals. Place an object that belongs to the one who owes you on the coals, and say hurry Agios.

XXIII. To keep a man interested in you, hold his photo and say Christohatos Tetragrammaton.

Prayers From the Bible

These prayers come from the oldest conjure book, that is, the Bible. They can be used in the modern Hoodoo context, with all the props, or without them. They are to be said aloud.

I. To bring stray cattle back home

And stand thou not in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of distress

Make the sign of the cross.

II. To find a good friend

Behold, I stand at the door and knock if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me

III. To influence superiors

His glory covered the heavens
And the earth was full of his praise
And his brightness was as the light
He had rays coming forth from his hand and there was the hiding of his power

IV. For gaining invitations to parties

Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful for that shall abide with him in his labor all the days of his life which God hath given him under the sun

V. For gaining promotions

But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you and to esteem them exceedingly highly in love for their work's sake

VI. To silence enemies

It is he that buildeth his chambers in the heavens, and hath founded his vault upon the earth
He that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth
Jehovah is his name

VII. To find a handsome man

My beloved is like a roe or a young hart
Behold, he standeth behind our wall
He looketh in at the windows
He glanceth through the lattice

VIII. To gain customers

Surely blessing I will bless thee and multiplying I will multiply thee

IX. For authority

All ye inhabitants of the world and ye dwellers on the earth when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye

X. To get back a stolen item

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright
For there is a happy end to the man of peace

XI. For success

I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith the Lord God who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty

XII. For safety from robbers

Let them be as the grass upon the housetops Which withereth before it groweth up

XIII. For power

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations

XIV. To make your man potent

Many waters cannot quench love Neither can floods drown it

XV. To make a man choose you over a rival

I am my beloved's
And his desire is toward me

XVI. To make money come your way

And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon

XVII. To be famous for one's Hoodoo

The earth is Jehovah's, and the fulness thereof
The world, and they that dwell therein

XVIII. To sleep like a baby

The lotus-trees cover him with their shade
The willows of the brook compass him about

XIX. For the lady of the night to gain customers

I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys

XX. For success in gambling

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above coming down from the Father of lights

Psychic Power Spell

On a Thursday when the minute hand is rising, make Psychic Power oil from a base oil and two-thirds myrrh and one-thirds periwinkle, and drop a ring belonging to your mother in the oil bottle. Store it in a dark and cool place for one week.

Take a shower or bath. Take the oil to your altar on a Thursday night, place the Bible on the altar, as well as two altar candles, a purple taper candle, and a bottle of mint liquor with two glasses.

Dress the altar candles with Van Van oil and the purple candle with Psychic Power oil. Light the candles and say

Come drink with me Marie Laveau

Pour mint liquor into the glasses and say

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions

Talk to Marie Laveau aloud. You may drink from your glass, but do not touch the other glass as long as there's something left from the purple candle. You may leave the altar while the candle is burning.

Once the purple candle has burned, thank Marie Laveau.
